

The Lion and The Elephant

The Lion and the Elephant is an interactive children's art book about the journey of life and friendship. The purpose of the book is for children to learn that life is a journey, and they get to write the story!

The Lion and the Elephant meet in the jungle. They are best friends until the "Queen" comes along and tells them they have to follow the rules! Life goes on until one day the Lion gets to make a choice.

Author: M Dorsett

Illustrations: August Lewis

Proudly published by Bootstrap Publications

Available now for $17.99 and as a fundraising tool for youth development initiatives. Wholesale pricing available.

KEY POINTS:

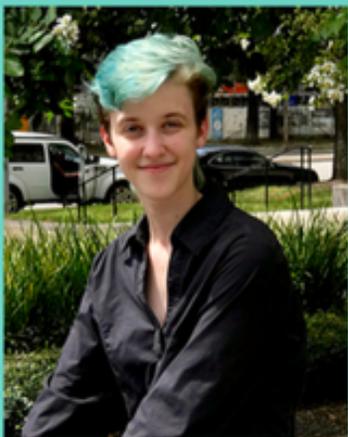

- Illustrations are in black and white like a coloring book
- Tutorials on how to draw the characters are included
- Choose your own ending
- Gender neutral story

Featured on:

M Dorsett is a life loving aficionado living mostly in Miami and writing from wherever. Her passions are the arts, our community, technology, and sustainability. Before starting her own business she worked in the field of youth development for many years. This is her second book.

August Lewis is an artist based in Houston Texas. His style features both digital and traditional art. He currently attends the Glassell School of Arts. When he's not drawing, he's working hard to become the best barista ever.

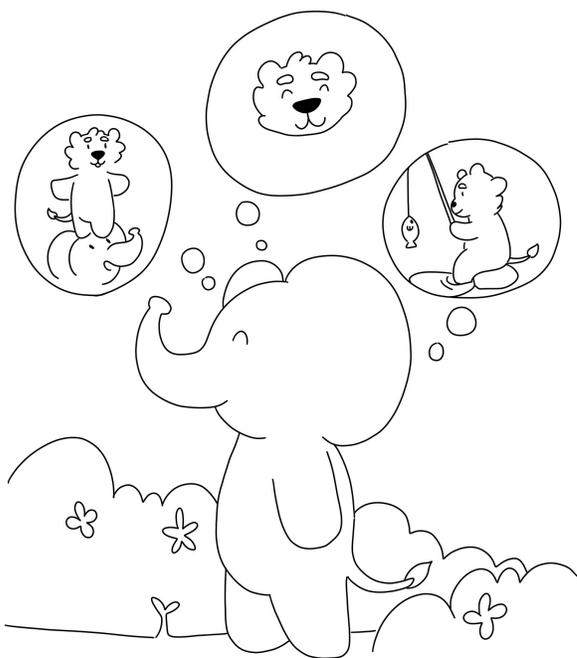

About Bootstrap Publications:

Bootstrap Publications is a boutique agency founded in 2017 and based in Miami, FL. This is their fourth published title.

Bulk order discounts are available.

For additional information please email georgette@joujountlinc.com